The grievance of the petitioner who is the Assistant Provident Fund Commissioner is that an unauthorised thattukada is being conducted in front of their office by the supplemental 4th respondent. I do not propose to consider the genuineness of the above grievance. Exts.P1 and P2 representations have been submitted by the petitioner before the 1st respondent-Corporation. The 1st respondent will take up Exts.P1 and P2, issue notice to the supplemental 4th respondent also, hear the petitioner and the supplemental 4th respondent and take a correct decision in the light of the various grounds raised in the Writ Petition. Decision as directed above will be taken within one month of receiving copy of this judgment.
